Dear Prof Tham,

On behalf of the Pacific Eye Care Society, we would like to express our wholehearted support for the upcoming 33rd Asia-Pacific Academy of Ophthalmology (APAO) Congress in Hong Kong from February 8-11, 2018 at the Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre.

Throughout the past years, the APAO Congress has become the premier eye meeting in our region, attracting delegates and renowned experts from all around the world. The scientific program showcases the latest updates and international trends most relevant to ophthalmologists and visual scientists in the Asia-Pacific region. It is an educational event not to be missed by our fellow colleagues.

The Pacific Eye Care Society fully endorses the APAO Congress and strongly encourages all of our members to register for the coming meeting in Hong Kong. We will also promote the Congress to other eye-care related organizations in the Pacific Islands.

We look forward to seeing you soon in Hong Kong!

Sincerely,
